Our Diary

Vol. XI

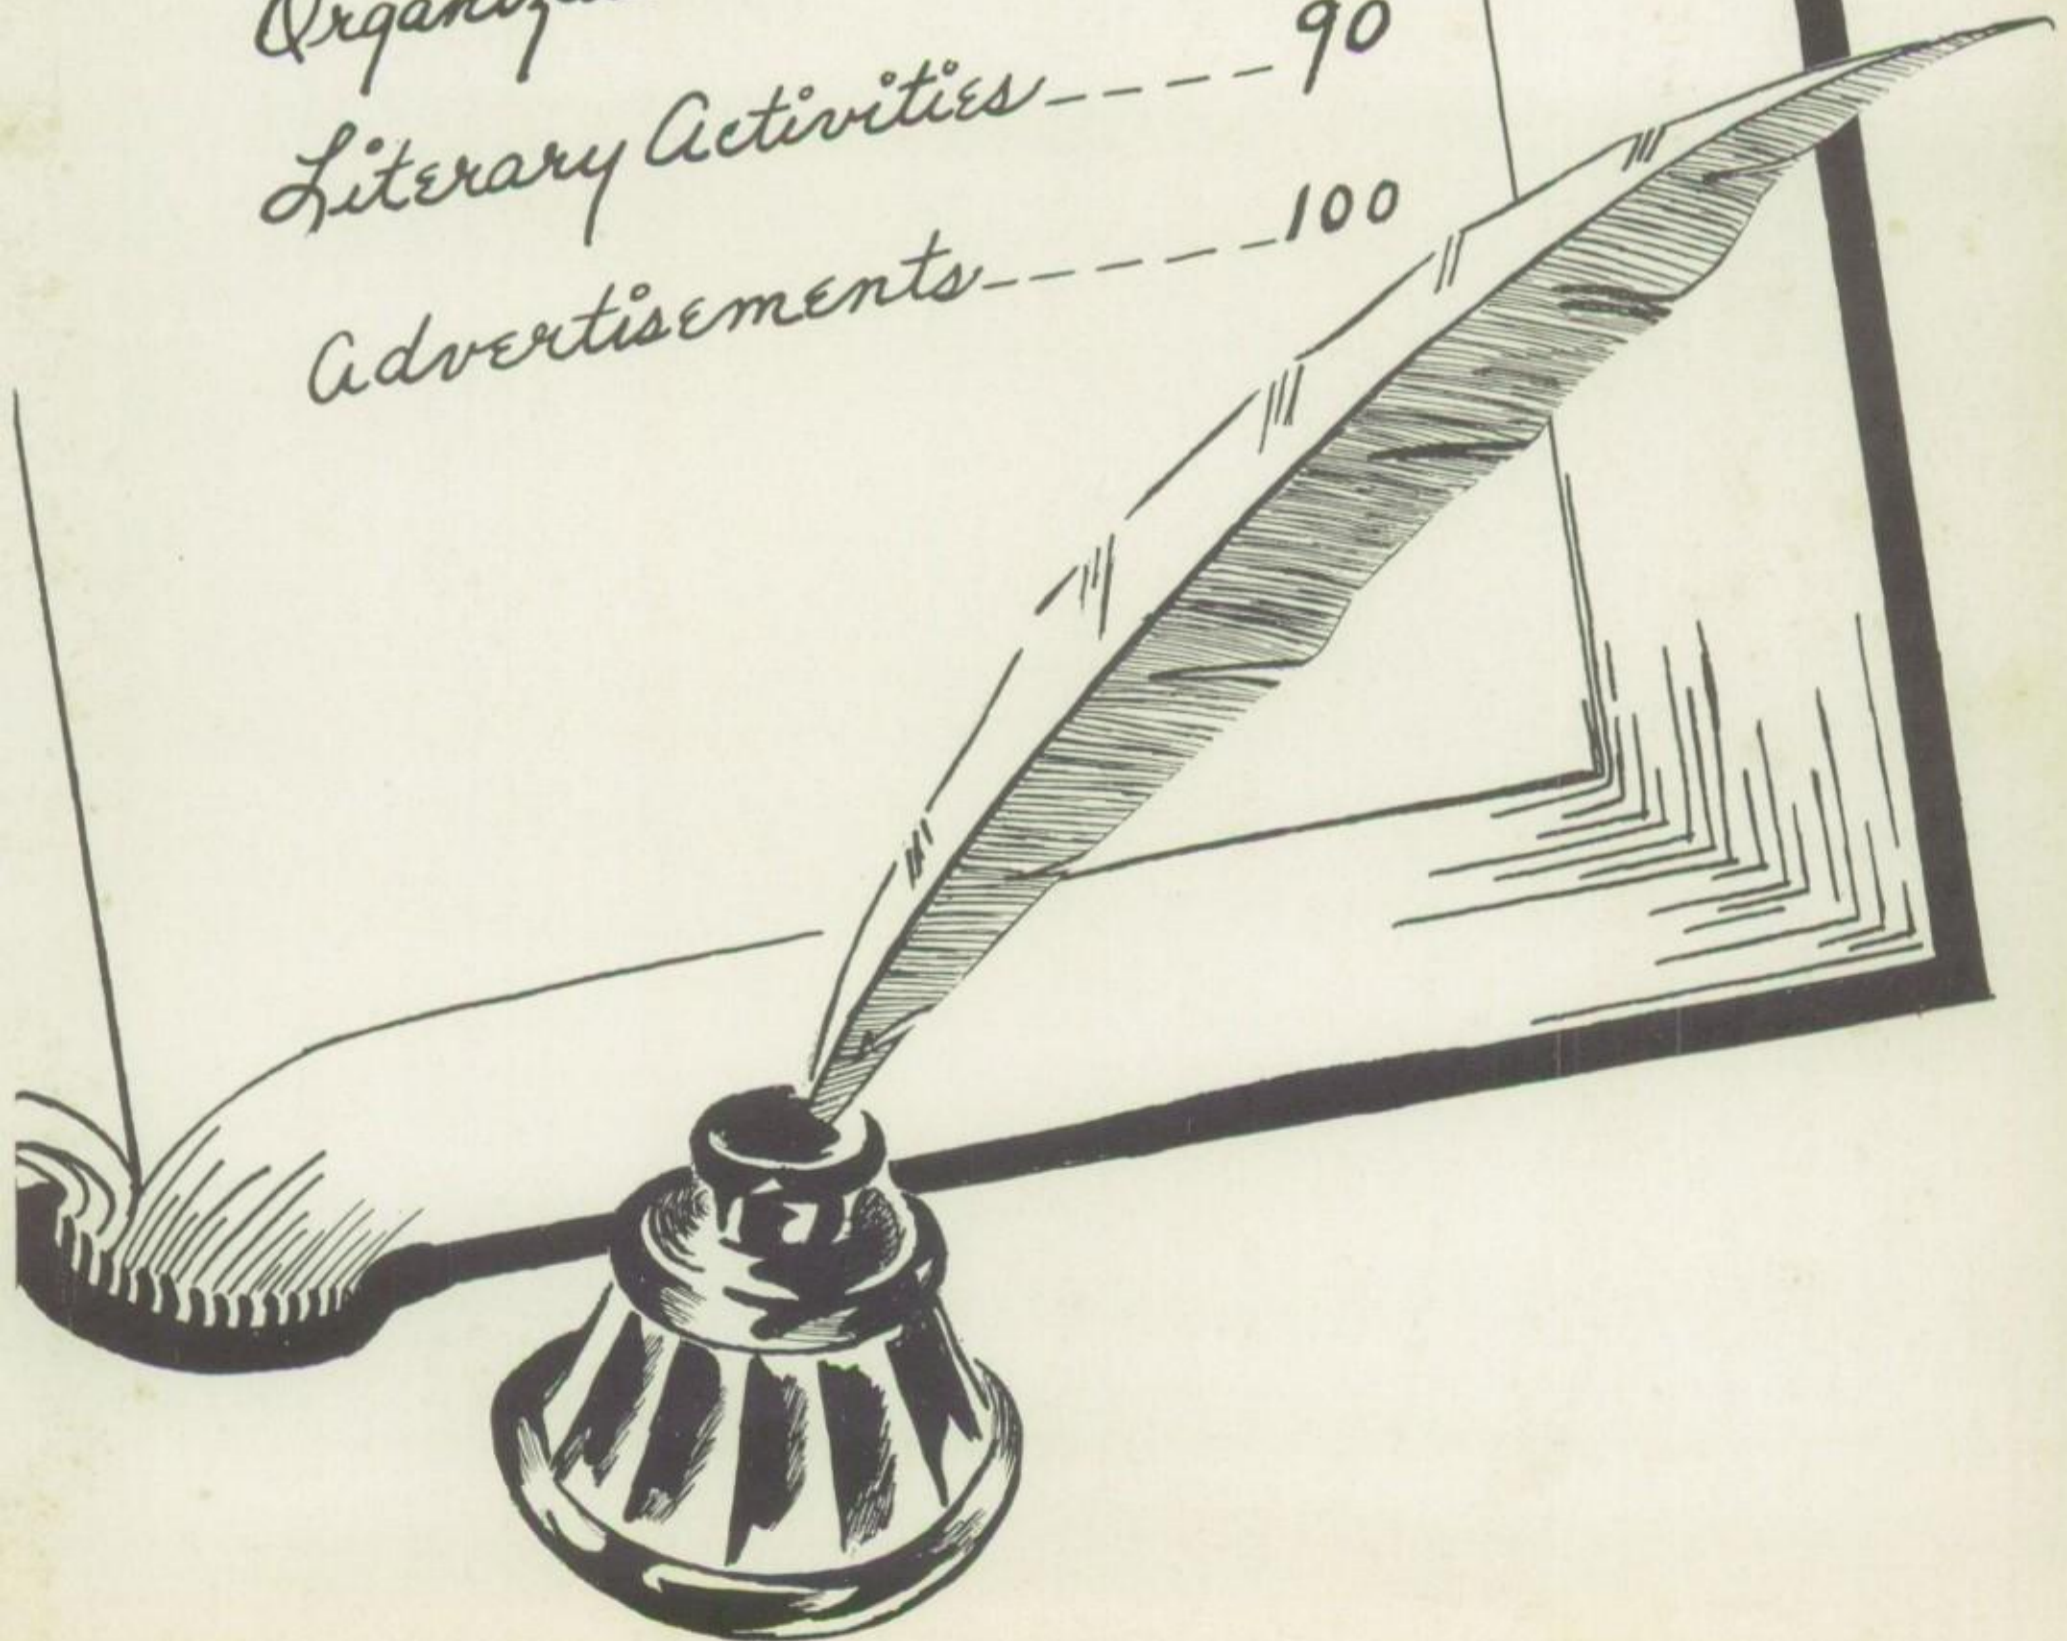

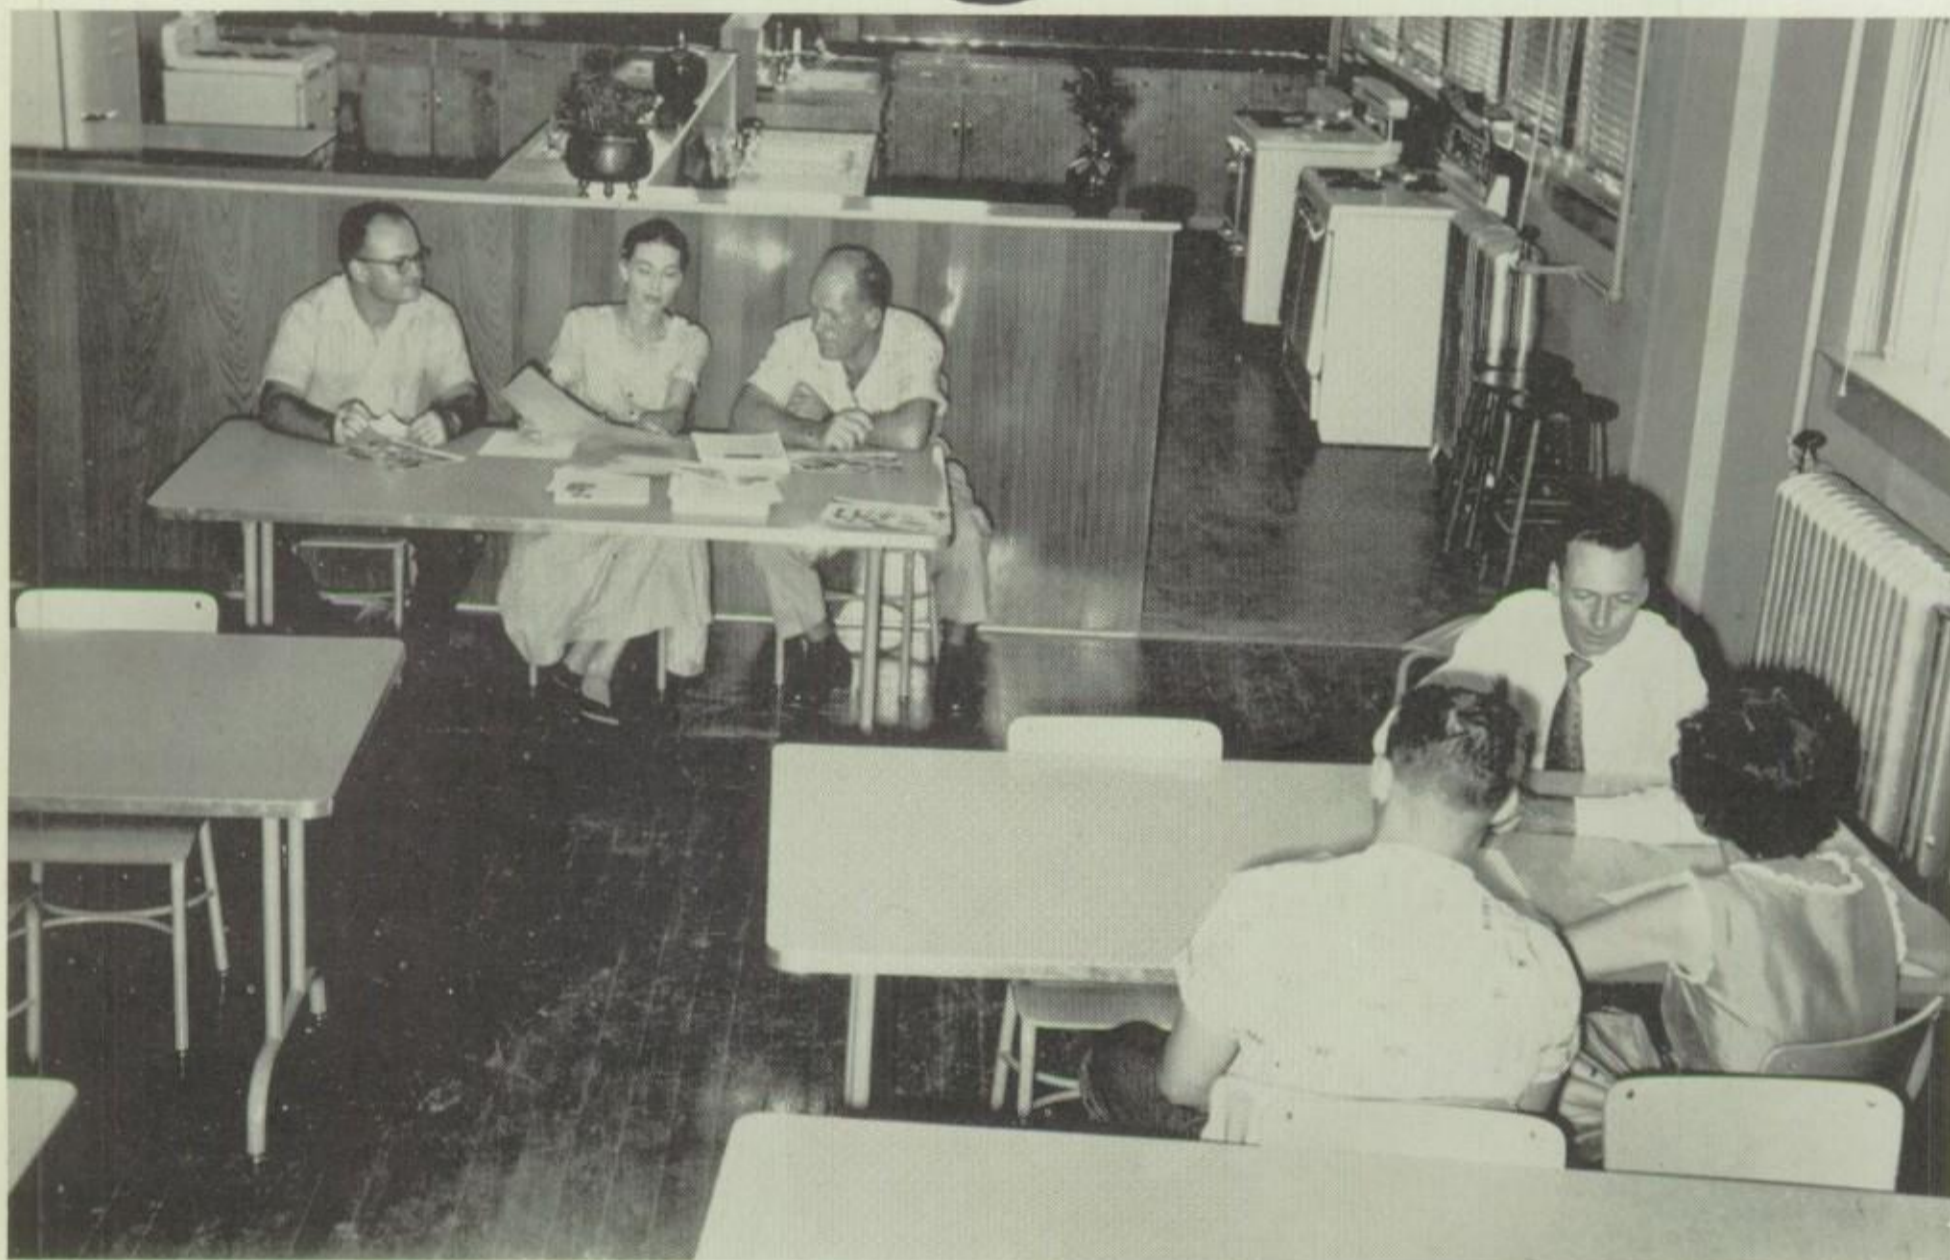

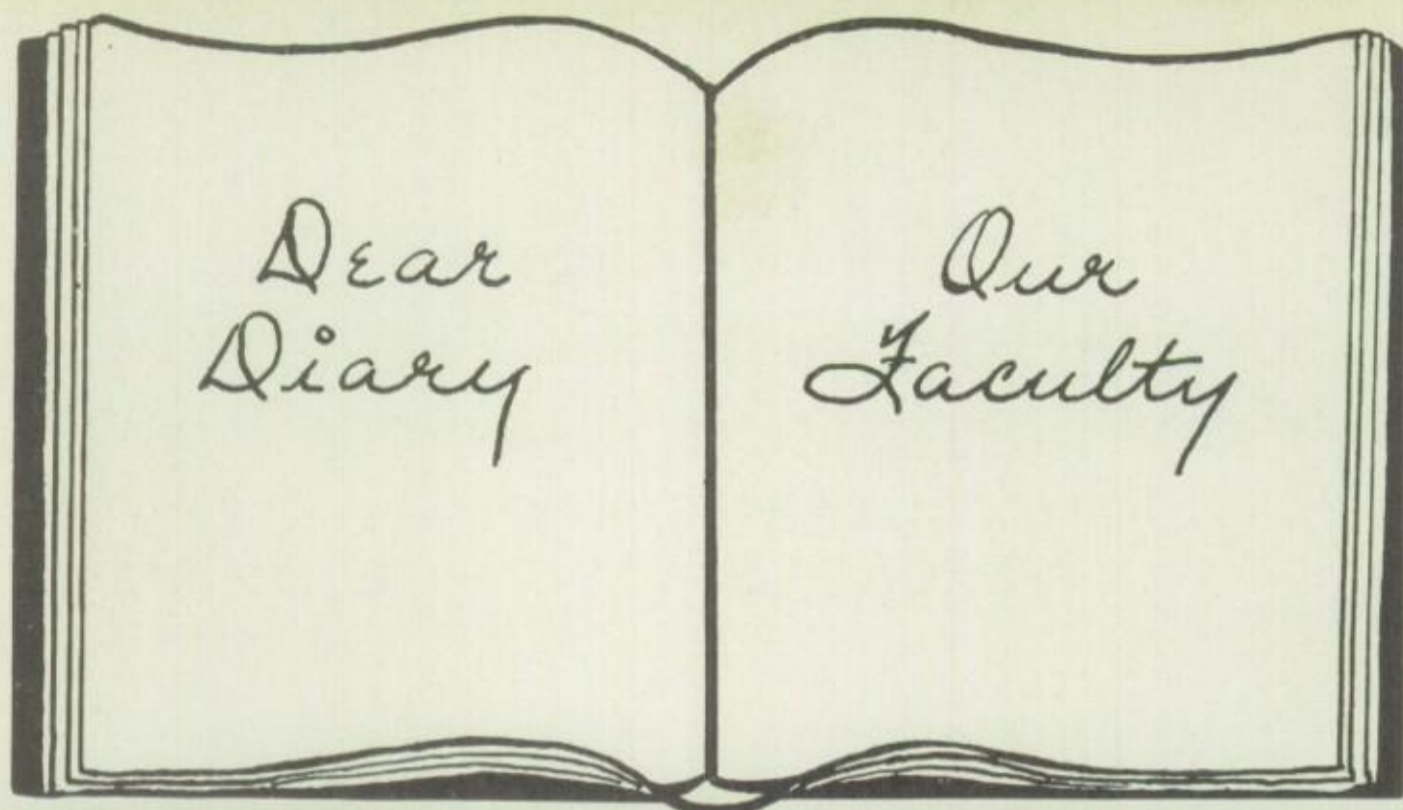

Dear Diary,

I am writing to you to tell you about our school and to show you what is happening this year. Here are Mr. Barnes, our superintendent, Mr. Williams, our principal, as they look over the school.

The following is an outline of what they see:

Classes-----	9

Our faculty is the best, we think. They have training, experience, and personality. On these pages we show you their pictures and list the degrees each has. In addition to the degrees named, each teacher is required to take six credits of modern education every three year period. This picture was taken in the new homemaking laboratory where faculty and committee meetings are held.

Dear Diary,

THE NEW LOOK!!

Fashion has a new look!

Our school has a new look since classes meet in newly decorated rooms.

Modern improvements such as new desks, venetian
blinds, sound proof halls,
and walls of pleasing color
make for better classwork.

In Memoriam

MR. RALPH B. HICKMAN

Georgetown High School suffered a great loss on January 8, 1957, with the death of Mr. Ralph B. Hickman, a teacher highly respected by the students and community. His thoughtfulness and personal interest in each of us has won him a place in all of our hearts. We wish to honor him by placing his picture on this page and by saying he has meant much to us, which will show in our lives.

GRETCHEN RATH ADMIRES HER NEW FORMAL which was bought in preparation for the social activities of the year. She was elected by the students and teachers to receive the D.A.R. Citizenship Award, and she was also selected the district winner. Gretchen has attended parties, given by the D.A.R., honoring her.

Features

Halloween

A MASQUERADE PARTY, sponsored by the Future Homemakers of America, was the first of numerous parties and social gatherings presented by the organizations and classes of Georgetown High School.

The box supper and masquerade party, a money-making project, was held at Halloween. BOBBING FOR APPLES went over with a splash for Milton Denham and William Beckman.

TEACHERS, as well as students, enjoyed coming incognito. Sam Spade in reality is Mr. Jim Cairnes, the F.F.A. Sponsor.

WHAT NEXT! Hula-Hula girls in Georgetown? Kathy Freydenfeldt and Judy Reid gape at Joyce Sudduth in her Hawaiian native costume.

F. F. A. - F. H. A. Banquet

LOOKING AT THE WORLD THROUGH ROSE COLORED GLASSES was the theme of the annual banquet held in the cafeteria on December 7. At this time the F. H. A. favorites and F. F. A. sweetheart were announced. Those working on degrees were recognized. Katherine Jacob presented Ruth Miller a certificate for completion of Junior Degree work.

F. F. A. SWEETHEART, JANICE GLASS, wears the jacket the chapter presented her at the banquet.

F. H. A. Honors

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS ELECT LITTLE SISTER. Little Miss Patricia Lynn White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis White, was chosen to be the club's little sister. Patricia is shown here in her home the night of the F.F.A. - F.H.A. Banquet at which she was presented.

WORKING HARD IN THE KITCHEN? Yes, Kristene Johnson, Ideal Homemaker, and Bobby Pope, F.H.A. Beau, are busy washing and drying the dishes for the homemaking department. They were presented with these honors at the annual F.F.A. - F.H.A. Banquet.

HAPPY AND PROUD OF HER PARENTS, Imadell Burks pins a corsage on her mother. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burks were chosen the F.H.A. Chapter Parents for the year, 1956-57.

F. H. A. Honors

F.H.A. STATE DEGREE WINNERS, Val Jean Bethke, Imadell Burks, and Katherine Jacob, are looking at Kathy's State Degree Book, which is a compilation of work required by the state degree committee. These awards were presented at the State F.H.A. Convention held in Dallas, April 25-27.

WINNER OF BETTY CROCKER AWARD, Kristine Johnson, looks for new recipes in the Betty Crocker Cook Book. Kristine was the winner of Georgetown High School's contest.

Assemblies

STUDENT PARTICIPATION ASSEMBLIES highlighted the 1956-57 Friday morning programs. The first of such activities was a variety show sponsored by the yearbook staff promoting sales to the 1957 Aerie. Portraying Elvis Presley, Fred Dodson thrilled the teenage girls present; but naturally failed to impress some of the boys.

BOYS RESPONDED by hanging Poor Elvis Presley in effigy from the top of the school. The speech class gave a variety of selections previously read as classwork including a ballad favoring Elvis and an extemp. against him.

All-State Winners

THREE OUTSTANDING STUDENTS were selected this year to be in the All-State Chorus and Band. They attended the All-State Convention, held in Dallas, February 13-15. At the right, Kay Fredericson, who sang first soprano, was a member of the All-State Chorus. The chorus members tried out at Waco, where the outstanding ones were sent to All-State as part of a 350 member chorus.

ALL-STATE CONCERT BAND WINNERS, Meredith McClain and David Watts, are pictured at left. Meredith made sixth chair and David played third. These musicians are the best in the state of Texas, having tried out for Regional and being two of the nine band members from the region sent to All-State.

KATHLEEN WIGGINS FLIRTS with David Watts as he sings "My Lady Wisteria."

A JAPANESE GARDENER with a cart full of flowers carried out the theme of the Oriental Garden.

Junior and Senior Banquet-Prom

The theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet-Prom was revealed on Friday, April 12, at the First Methodist Church as the guests crossed over a Japanese wooden bridge into the banquet room. After the banquet, a prom was held in the recreation building at the San Gabriel Park with an orchestra from Southwestern University furnishing the dance music.

JERRY THOMPSON, MASTER OF CEREMONIES FOR THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET, proved himself to be alive, alert, and witty.

CONFUCIUS SAY - A REPORT FROM THE ORIENT given by Johnny Bergland as he stood in front of the Japanese pond.

Band Sweetheart

EAGLE FIGHT NEVER DIES as we meet our old and modern rival, Taylor. The Bonfire was blazing the night before the big game. It is a custom to roast a duck but this year a new spark was kindled between the two teams and the Eagles not only roasted a duck but drowned him first and then roasted him.

NEAL HARRIS SCORES during the Belton game. He also won the game by getting a triple to right field and Milton Denham scored.

Baseball

DICKEY STANLEY ADDS ANOTHER POINT as our score slowly climbs over Belton's.

CHANGING THE TRADITION, the football boys decide that yells can be fun, too. This year John Montgomery's voice led the yell which spread throughout the school. The boys also made razors "off limits" until the first game was lost. You could always hear the bearded boys "sounding off"...

JOHN MONTGOMERY'S VOICE could be heard above the rest leading the others in the chant.

Hold your head 'way up high Georgetown High is passing by
Am I right or wrong?
Right...
Am I right or wrong?
Right...
Sound Off!
One, two,
Once more
Three, four.
Break it on down.
One, two, three, four,
One, two...three, four.

Sound Off

Earl McKeithan, Milton Denham, Billy Ray Snowden, and many others responded to the chant.

Yearbook Staff

THREE SERIOUS YEARBOOK STAFF MEMBERS judge a picture before deciding to use it in the '57 AERIE. Editor Katherine Jacob holds it while Ruth Miller and Joyce Persons, co-business managers, help her in the decision. Miss Mattie holds a San Marcos yearbook as Mary Ann Jones, Billye Adams, Rosalie Smith, John Berglund, Mary McCoy, Jan Ischy, Ruth Miller, Joyce Person, Katherine Jacob, and Rita Lefner, kneeling, give their consent. The Staff was entertained with a tamale pie supper at Miss Mattie's for selling the set goal during annual sales. We are planning other socials for the year.

THE GEORGETOWN HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' CHORUS, directed by Mrs. Ruth Summers, was something to be proud of this year. Among other appearances, they were also shown over television in January.
